

Previous Control Systems

Control System D2000

D2000, delivered 1985-1995 consists of a text-based HMI using an industrial computer as operator terminal and a Siemens S5 PLC for machine control.

This training module is intended for a “stand alone” press.

Prerequisites:

No prior knowledge is required, however basic knowledge using a computer and the mouse, is recommended. If you are new to computers, please contact us and we will assist in providing a training course that is aimed at new computer users.

Course topics:

- Safety
- Controls
- Main control panel
- Two-hand control device
- Getting started
- Operator’s Terminal
- What is shown on the screen?
- Menu system - Presses
- Alarms
- Basic press programming
- Hands-on training

Duration	No of participants
16 hours	Max 8
2 days

