

Training Modules MC32 Press

General

MC32 is a Graphic Human Machine Interface that runs under Windows NT & XP.

It is used for controlling hydraulic presses, roll feeders, transfers, CD-robots and blank feeders.

MC32 Operator Level Training

This module is intended for a “stand alone” press.

Prerequisites:

No prior knowledge is required, however previous experience with Windows based products is recommended.

Basic knowledge using a computer and mouse is recommended. If you are new to computers, please contact us and we will assist in providing a training course aimed at new computer users.

Course topics:

- Safety
- Controls
- Main control panel
- Two-hand control device
- Other control devices
- Getting started
- Operator's terminal
- MC32 software
- What is shown on the screen?
- MC32 general functions
- How to use Help
- Login / logout

Duration	No of participants
12 hours	Max 8
1,5 days

- Menu system – Presses
- MC32 alarm management
- Alarm list
- Alarms
- Basics of press programming
- Hands-on training

